CENTURY 21 Adams & Barnes Achieves HALL OF FAME HONOR

Monrovia, CA, March 1, 2007 - Tom Kunz, President of CENTURY 21 LLC. recently announced that CENTURY 21 Adams & Barnes will be inducted into the newly created President's Hall of Fame at the brand's International Convention in Las Vegas on Tuesday, March 13, 2007.

The Hall of Fame was created to honor those offices that have received the highly coveted President's Award for at least 10 of the last 12 years. Two offices in the nation have met the criteria and will be inducted in its inaugural year. CENTURY 21 Adams & Barnes is one of those two offices, out of almost 5,000 offices in the nation. Tom Adams, broker of CENTURY 21 Adams & Barnes will be accepting the award on behalf of the team of agents and staff. General Manager Hugo Torres said "it is an honor to be one of the offices considered for this coveted achievement. Our agents work diligently and this vindicates their everyday work."

The President's Hall of Fame will be given to those offices that achieve the CENTURION level of sales along with the Quality Service Pinnacle Award for providing the highest level of service over a two year period. CENTURY 21 Real Estate LLC is the franchisor of the world's largest residential real estate sales organization, with more than 8,000 independently owned and operated franchised broker offices in more than 45 countries and territories worldwide.
